Gen. Ourand said that he witnessed the balloon ascensions to determine how the stacks would look when constructed, and he said that from the War College they completely dwarfed the Washington Monument and marred the beauty of the Potomac Park from the south. The action was taken following the reading of a letter from the committee of one hundred inclosing a copy of a resolution which it asked to be adopted.

For Representation in Congress.

Mr. Brandenburg declared he believes the present form of municipal government should not be changed; that the commission form of government should be continued, the commissioners to be appointed by the President. Congress should continue to have exclusive jurissible adopted.
